Bonnie Hamilton told me that General Clifton, the Air Force side, had been present at the autopsy. Bonnie was secretary to Clark Clifford. I could be wrong, but I don't recall any reference to Gen. Clifton having been present at the autopsy. Among the other things I recall her having quoted him as saying is that it was not possible to trace the bullet.